

History

Trinity City Hotel, located on Pearse Street, formerly Great Brunswick Street has housed a remarkable collection of residences, business and services. The original Georgian Buildings alongside the Courtyard were constructed in the early 1800s and the facades of these buildings are much the same as when they were first built.

Among the best known former residents of the hotel are Ted Castle's Coal Merchants who were once based where the hotel reception now stands. The Brunswick Bar and Courtyard are located where The British Army Recruiting Office once held their offices in the early 1900s. During World War One, 250,000 Irish volunteers registered to join the British Army in these Georgian rooms.

One of the best known former residences is Pádraig Henry Pearse, the leader of the 1916 Rising and author of the Easter Proclamation. Pádraig was born and lived with his family next door at Number 27 Pearse Street. The Pearse Room and Courtyard occupy the back garden of the home where the Pearse family once worked and played.

We welcome you to join us in historic Dublin and hope you enjoy your dining experience at the Trinity City Hotel.
